

TWO KINGS

A classic tale adopted to a modern setting.

We all, children and adults alike, have different inner voices telling us what to do.

In this episode, David, 8, is tasked with babysitting his baby sister while Mommy goes to the store. (Daddy is in the other room.)

David hears his friends playing ball outdoors.

David's Bad King tells him to join them. His Good King says no!

He is torn even more when his friends call him out to join them!

What will David do?!

What would you do?

Based on an ancient parable of "the wisest man who ever lived."
